

If you are interested in learning more information about Missouri State Questers, please contact:

Vice Presidents:

Kathy Hill-Bahner:
kathybahner@sbcglobal.net

Diana Payne:
diana@elitepet.com

The Questers International Headquarters resides in a Federal Period three-story brick building certified by the Philadelphia Historical Commission as Historically Significant to the Area. The Questers Headquarters building houses the Tea Caddie Collection of Questers founder Jessie Elizabeth Bardens, as well as the Bess Bardens Memorial Library. A large collection of members' study papers, books, and videos is maintained at Headquarters and these are available for checkout to all Questers.

The Questers
International Headquarters
210 South Quince Street
Philadelphia, PA 19107-5534
(215) 913-5183

Missouri State Questers

A Member of Questers International

Are you interested in...

- ❖ Restoring & Preserving the past for future generations?
- ❖ Learning about historic people, places, and things?
- ❖ Educating yourself and future preservationists?
- ❖ Being a part of something bigger by socializing and working with like-minded people?

If you answered YES to any of the above, then Questers is for YOU!

International website:
www.Questers1944.org

State website:
www.MissouriStateQuesters.org